Emerging Modes and Metaphors: Perspectives on Indian-English Fiction

The book traces the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Reflections of Changing Values in Indo-Anglian Fiction Dr. Ramesh K. Srivastava

Structural Interplay In Kamala Markandaya's The Tamarind Seed Dr. G.D. Sharma

Social Change In Man Ray Joshi's Unforgettable Dr. K.B. Kusal

Cultural Dilemmas And Displacements of Immigrants in Jhumpa Lahiri's The Namesake Tejinder Kaur

Aesthetic And Structural Theme Of R.K. Narayan's The Guide And Arun Joshi's The Unforgettable Dr. K. B. Kushal

Significance of Cultural Codes In Anita Desai's Fasting Feasting Dr. Ramandeep Singh

Kulbhushan Kushal's poems. These books show the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Introduction Kulbhushan Kushal, N.K. Neb

The book traces the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Reflections of Changing Values in Indo-Anglian Fiction Dr. Ramesh K. Srivastava

Structural Interplay In Kamala Markandaya's The Tamarind Seed Dr. G.D. Sharma

Social Change In Man Ray Joshi's Unforgettable Dr. K.B. Kusal

Cultural Dilemmas And Displacements of Immigrants in Jhumpa Lahiri's The Namesake Tejinder Kaur

Aesthetic And Structural Theme Of R.K. Narayan's The Guide And Arun Joshi's The Unforgettable Dr. K. B. Kushal

Significance of Cultural Codes In Anita Desai's Fasting Feasting Dr. Ramandeep Singh

Kulbhushan Kushal's poems. These books show the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Introduction Kulbhushan Kushal, N.K. Neb

The book traces the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Reflections of Changing Values in Indo-Anglian Fiction Dr. Ramesh K. Srivastava

Structural Interplay In Kamala Markandaya's The Tamarind Seed Dr. G.D. Sharma

Social Change In Man Ray Joshi's Unforgettable Dr. K.B. Kusal

Cultural Dilemmas And Displacements of Immigrants in Jhumpa Lahiri's The Namesake Tejinder Kaur

Aesthetic And Structural Theme Of R.K. Narayan's The Guide And Arun Joshi's The Unforgettable Dr. K. B. Kushal

Significance of Cultural Codes In Anita Desai's Fasting Feasting Dr. Ramandeep Singh

Kulbhushan Kushal's poems. These books show the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Introduction Kulbhushan Kushal, N.K. Neb

The book traces the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Reflections of Changing Values in Indo-Anglian Fiction Dr. Ramesh K. Srivastava

Structural Interplay In Kamala Markandaya's The Tamarind Seed Dr. G.D. Sharma

Social Change In Man Ray Joshi's Unforgettable Dr. K.B. Kusal

Cultural Dilemmas And Displacements of Immigrants in Jhumpa Lahiri's The Namesake Tejinder Kaur

Aesthetic And Structural Theme Of R.K. Narayan's The Guide And Arun Joshi's The Unforgettable Dr. K. B. Kushal

Significance of Cultural Codes In Anita Desai's Fasting Feasting Dr. Ramandeep Singh

Kulbhushan Kushal's poems. These books show the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Introduction Kulbhushan Kushal, N.K. Neb

The book traces the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Reflections of Changing Values in Indo-Anglian Fiction Dr. Ramesh K. Srivastava

Structural Interplay In Kamala Markandaya's The Tamarind Seed Dr. G.D. Sharma

Social Change In Man Ray Joshi's Unforgettable Dr. K.B. Kusal

Cultural Dilemmas And Displacements of Immigrants in Jhumpa Lahiri's The Namesake Tejinder Kaur

Aesthetic And Structural Theme Of R.K. Narayan's The Guide And Arun Joshi's The Unforgettable Dr. K. B. Kushal

Significance of Cultural Codes In Anita Desai's Fasting Feasting Dr. Ramandeep Singh

Kulbhushan Kushal's poems. These books show the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Introduction Kulbhushan Kushal, N.K. Neb

The book traces the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Reflections of Changing Values in Indo-Anglian Fiction Dr. Ramesh K. Srivastava

Structural Interplay In Kamala Markandaya's The Tamarind Seed Dr. G.D. Sharma

Social Change In Man Ray Joshi's Unforgettable Dr. K.B. Kusal

Cultural Dilemmas And Displacements of Immigrants in Jhumpa Lahiri's The Namesake Tejinder Kaur

Aesthetic And Structural Theme Of R.K. Narayan's The Guide And Arun Joshi's The Unforgettable Dr. K. B. Kushal

Significance of Cultural Codes In Anita Desai's Fasting Feasting Dr. Ramandeep Singh

Kulbhushan Kushal's poems. These books show the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.

CONTENTS

Introduction Kulbhushan Kushal, N.K. Neb

The book traces the changing pattern of thematic concerns and narrative form at different stages of the development of Indian-English fiction. The book includes articles on the fictional works of the writers from the first and the contemporary generation of Indian writers in English. The papers included in the book brought to light the scholarly interests of different critics and the critical thought required to explicate literature effectively.
INTRODUCTION

The exploration of the thematic and the artistic features of Kulbhushan Kushtag's poetry, discussed in the book, relate to the emerging trends in the study of this verbal art.

CONTENTS

Introduction

Lives of Loss: Travails of Diaspora Journey and Existence in Kiran Desai's The Inheritance of Loss

Speech and Silence of a 'Migrant Novel': Jhumpa Lahiri's Namesake Dr. P.S. Ramana

Colonizing the Mind: Colonialism and Imagination in Manto's The Glass Piano and Border': A Critique of Trauma of Partition intwo Short-stories

Resisting the Oppressions of Patriarchy through Female Bonding A Study of Shashi Deshpande's Beyond Boundaries: A Study of Shashi Deshpande's

Dialogues of Novelisation in Amitav Ghosh's The Glass Palace

Beyond Illusions: An Existentialist Appraisal of V. S. Naipaul's The Midwife's Tale

Comprehensive English Grammar (With Notes On Pronunciation) N.K. Neb

GUIDELINES TO CONTRIBUTORS

The Poem

As a policy PEC prefers to publish the members of its Literary Society. For the address, contact, The General Secretary, PEC.

1074x586 (nebnarinder@yahoo.co.in)

1074x586

GUIDELINES TO CONTRIBUTORS

The Poem

As a policy PEC prefers to publish the members of its Literary Society. For the address, contact, The General Secretary, PEC.

1074x586 (nebnarinder@yahoo.co.in)